

I was in the spirit last week walking with Jesus in the heavens.

He pointed out to me the many pathways (actually they were doorways) that led into unimaginable worlds... Each one different, and excitingly magnificent!

“But as it is written:

“Eye has not seen, nor ear heard,
Nor have entered into the heart of man
The things which God has prepared for those who love Him.”

But God has revealed them to us through His Spirit.

For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God. For what man knows the things of a man except the spirit of the man which is in him? Even so no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God. Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might know the things that have been freely given to us by God.

These things we also speak, not in words which man’s wisdom teaches but which the Holy Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual.” 1 Corinthians 2:9-13

Eternity it will take to partake of such treasures!

This planet and its attractions really are pretty bland compared to this reality.

The Holy Spirit pointed out the following to me that I’d like to share.

To the sighted it will make sense...
to the blind it may offer anger or denial...
rather than hope of something to strive for.

I hear it said many times by Christians,
“I have a personal relationship with God/Jesus.”

A personal relationship with a person to me means you know them, they know you and you both get together, see and hear and talk to each other back and forth... fellowship right?

If I read an author’s book, do I have a personal relationship or fellowship with that author?
Of course not.

So if a person has never seen nor heard God, how can they have a personal relationship with Him?

How can they do His daily will for their lives?

Sorry... I just don’t get that thinking.

Shouldn’t a person do whatever they have to do to meet and talk to God, and operate in the spirit, if they’re currently deaf and blind?

Let’s help those who are impaired get there!
Well... at least the ones who realize they need it.

How does a person open their spiritual senses?

I would try whatever works to finally break open the veil of darkness, if some efforts have failed.

Some went to the top of a mountain or near water. Others it didn’t seem to matter where they were. Some need certain music or to pray and fast. Teach people that they can easily follow the simple teaching from God Himself!

He basically said,
“Want to fellowship with Me, do this!”

Go somewhere quiet and spend time developing your senses. (Matthew 6:6, Psalm 46:10)
