

“Enterprises must be prepared, with specially trained troops of the hunter class, who can develop a reign of terror down these coasts. The passive resistance war, in which we have acquainted ourselves so well, must come to an end” Winston Churchill June 5, 1940

Winston Churchill was Prime Minister of England during WW II. He knew that traditional warfare, accepted by most leaders, was an obsolete survival path that would fail. After making this speech, he formed the Combined Operations, better known as the Commandos. Also in June 1940, Churchill sent a Canadian (William Stephenson) to the USA to open the British Security Coordination (British Intelligence) office in New York to work with President Roosevelt. This resulted in the beginning of the US spy group known as the OSS and later the CIA.

Churchill, who was named the Greatest Briton of all time in a 2002 poll, was an Eagle among Eagles in war strategy. Elite military groups and spying are still, over 70 years later, considered the tip of the spear in unconventional warfare. Churchill would be pleased to see how these offensive hunter groups have evolved.

So how do we or should we engage in Unconventional Warfare in Christianity today?

Statistics show us that most “traditional church” (religion) denominations are inept in the supernatural arena. Miracles, signs, wonders, healing, prophecy, spiritual warfare and demonstrations of God’s power (1 Cor. 2:4-5; 4:20) are deliberately ignored or rejected.

Most leaders/Christians are either cessationist – believing miracles ended with the death of the last apostle, (which is the “church doctrine” I grew up in); or they’re liberal theologian - rejects anything supernatural in the Bible or anything supernatural today; or dispensationalist – belief Christianity is impotent; or neo-orthodoxy - no belief in miracles, signs and wonders; or fundamentalist – don’t believe supernatural gifts exist today, as only rarely God will answer prayer; or relegation theology – belief that only those in a religious order (i.e. priest, nun, monk) with exceptional holiness are considered “saints” and are the only ones capable of gifts of the supernatural; or scientific rationalism or humanism – that rejects a human spirit concept or that there is a spiritual realm;

Historic Report

During the Middle Ages roman catholicism tortured or burned commoners and laity for practicing gifts of the Holy Spirit.

or the intermingling doctrines – those that mix jewish, islamic (Chrislam), buddhist, hindu, occultic, new age and/or personal cult/belief with the Gospel of Jesus Christ... also are all supernaturally incompetent.

These groups typically attack, speak evil of, insult or attribute to satan, the works of the Holy Spirit’s acts that are accomplished through people.

Jesus said, “Therefore I say to you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven men. Anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, either in this age or in the age to come.”

Matthew 12:31-32

Even many of those calling themselves pentecostal or charismatic or “Spirit-filled” are deceived in limiting themselves and God in regards to spiritual truth and the supernatural power and authority at their disposal. Rhoda and I’ve experienced such groups that are extremely traditional (man-made doctrines and personal theories on the supernatural). Such as, some believe they don’t need to do spiritual warfare because they have the Holy Spirit in them; some won’t allow or accept non-leader involvement in personal ministry or supernatural gifts;

some don't accept other Spiritually gifted persons/groups; some reject many supernatural gifts, especially from the "non-approved" or those not under their "covering", as they call it; or others where the ministry of apostles and prophets are rejected by pastors/leaders.

All these are obsolete and unbiblical spiritual survival paths that fail.

"One should realize that any doctrine which denies, or in any way causes doubt and unbelief concerning anything taught in Scripture is demon inspired. Furthermore, any power, influence or doctrine which causes one to become passive, inactive, submissive, and unresisting to all supernatural workings seeking to control the life contrary to Scripture, is not of God." Finis Dake Annotated Reference Bible commentary found in Jeremiah 23

So what does all this have to do with Churchill and Unconventional Warfare?

Sir Winston had to fight 2 wars... the one against the Nazis and the one in his own backyard against his own military people. Existing British military branches (army, navy, and air force) rejected, hindered and actively fought against assisting with his ideas... and he was the boss! Each of these branches were stuck in their own traditional thinking that each was more superior to the other and Unconventional Warfare wasn't needed. They were hindering success! Churchill then proved to these traditionalists (and to the Nazis), the capabilities of Unconventional Warfare through... demonstrations of power. Opinions slowly changed to acceptance, as these groups (Commandos and spies) proved their necessity and capabilities in warfare.

Unconventional Warfare is just as much a survival requirement in the supernatural realm as it is in the natural realm. We also have to fight 2 wars... the one against satan and the one in our own backyard against those who reject the Holy Spirit's supernatural acts and those who implement them. These spiritually blinded groups are hindering the success of spreading the Gospel; hindering successful ministries; hindering the success of destroying the works of the devil and hindering the success of setting the captives free.

"Several missionaries have told me they discovered that of all the missionaries living on the Sinai Peninsula, none have led a muslim to the Lord unless that muslim first sees a healing, a miracle..."

So what can a no-nonsense, Eagle Christian hunter or hunter group that operates with the Holy Spirit and in the supernatural realm do to achieve maximum success in these 2 wars?

Some of you may be thinking, "I'm going to stay in my (spiritually inept) "church" and try to fix it"! Yeah, I've seen, heard and tried that plan. Only if the Holy Spirit directs you to stay for some reason should this be an option. God's Word says we don't fellowship with those who are deliberately at war with (against) God's Word.

Our Unconventional Warfare is rooted in our surrendering to God. We each need to do nothing but what we see and hear the Father do, as Jesus did and taught us to do also (John 5:19). We ask for our spiritual senses to be opened and utilized and ask the Holy Spirit to exercise His demonstrations of power through us, directing us to act only under His strategy.

The Unconventional Warfare of miracles, signs, wonders, healing, spiritual warfare, prophecy, going in the spirit, etc., is only maximally efficient and effective when we abandon our will, desires, plans, and thoughts to Him. We work together as partners. We step out in faith and courage. When we choose our own will or submit to fears, we are exposed to the enemies traps and landmines (i.e. pride, religion, self-idolization, evil spirit affliction); being taken captive (i.e. mentally, emotionally, physically with diseases, evil spirit affliction, early physical death); and most assuredly, failure of God's will and our destiny.

If we are to be also "prepared, specially trained troops of the hunter class", Christians need to abandon the self-designed, supernaturally handicapped, doctrinal boxes and passiveness they're trapped in and get back to the Unconventional Warfare that Jesus and the early church engaged in. Good Hunting!
