

Recently I watched a National Geographic special called Eternal Enemies: Lions and Hyenas. It reminded me of Christians vs. evil spirits.

I was amazed to see hyenas harassing, confronting and attacking lions. At times the lions just stood there doing nothing to the hyenas when they were challenged. This was quite a shock to me, as I would have thought no lion would be afraid of dealing with such a small, pesky enemy.

How many Christians do the same...
cowering away from evil attack and from confronting evil?

Despite the power and size advantage that is evident in the lion, the hyenas appeared to mock and challenge the lions into surrendering without a fight.

Christians also have an overwhelming power advantage to evil spirits, yet so many submit to failure, to attack, and to fear.

I wanted to climb into my TV and kick the lions that were just standing there!

Then a fire grew up in me!

A male lion on patrol of his territory came upon the scene.

He quickly ran through the hyena pack to attack the leader. The hyena pack scattered, as he grabbed the leader and killed her.

He knew which one he needed to destroy and he did it.

Evil principalities and powers need the same treatment!

The hyena pack then secluded itself to go through a long process of accepting a new leader. During this time the lions were free of the hyenas torment. Once the new leader emerged she led the pack against the lions. I was again embarrassed for these lions! Then the same male lion suddenly appeared. Without hesitation, he knew who the new hyena leader was and ran for quite some time after her until he reached her. The other hyenas scattering in all directions. He could have easily taken others along the way, but he wanted the leader. He honestly had a smile on his face as he was chasing her down!
It was the same ending.

The film makers named this lion "Eetwidomayloh", an African name which means, "He Who Greets With Fire"!

Even though these lions looked like lions and sounded like lions, only one was a true lion!

"Greet with Fire"

It's time for all Christians to act like true Christians, not just looking and sounding the part! Otherwise we're just an embarrassment!

Let's all stand on the Rock and be a Christian who greets with fire, (God's Fire) not only to evil (especially leaders), but also to non-believers and to those Christians who need an example to emulate!

Let's daily seize our responsibility, our inheritance and our position with God, with a fierce boldness that will shake the heavens and the earth!
