

"⁴¹ Peter said, "Lord, are You addressing this parable to us, or to everyone else as well?" ⁴² And the Lord said, "Who then is the faithful and sensible steward, whom his master will put in charge of his servants, to give them their rations at the proper time? ⁴³ Blessed is that slave whom his master finds so doing when he comes. ⁴⁴ Truly I say to you that he will put him in charge of all his possessions. ⁴⁵ But if that slave says in his heart, 'My master will be a long time in coming,' and begins to beat the slaves, both men and women, and to eat and drink and get drunk; ⁴⁶ the master of that slave will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know, and will cut him in pieces, and assign him a place with the unbelievers. ⁴⁷ And that slave who knew his master's will and did not get ready or act in accord with his will, will receive many lashes, ⁴⁸ but the one who did not know it, and committed deeds worthy of a flogging, will receive but few. From everyone who has been given much, much will be required; and to whom they entrusted much, of him they will ask all the more." Luke 12:41-48 (NASB)

Jesus says this is the truth (under lined v. 44)... that those who know God's will and don't do it, through deliberate irresponsible acts, will be cut to pieces, beaten with many lashes and assigned a place with the unbelievers!

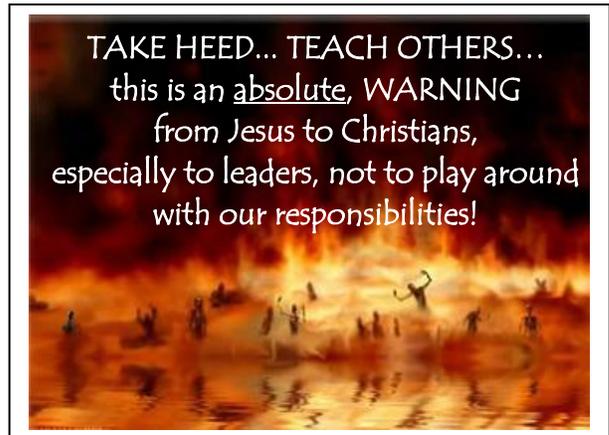

Where is the assigned place such corrupted "stewards of Christ" will go with the unbelievers?

"But the cowardly, unbelieving, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death." Revelation 21:8

Whoa!

Don't hear that one preached on Sunday's do ya?

OK... I know many Christians, especially leaders, are squirming in their seat right now, not really liking what I just said, but remember, I'm just the messenger!

Better tighten your grip on your chair, because you probably won't like this next one either... well, Eagle Christians are cheering, but the chickens are thinking up an argument to re-interpret what Jesus says is truth to convince themselves they're OK.

We're all familiar with this next one...

"¹³ Now the Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁴ And He found in the temple those who sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the money changers doing business.

¹⁵ When He had made a whip of cords, He drove them all out of the temple, with the sheep and the oxen, and poured out the changers' money and overturned the tables. ¹⁶ And He said to those who sold doves, "Take these things away! Do not make My Father's house a house of merchandise!" John 2:13-16

The peaceful, loving, calm Jesus that we know becomes a man full of righteous anger with a whip in His hand, violently destroying "businesses" turning a buck off of God and His sheep. Jesus commands us by His Words and His action that this activity is vile and corrupt and should be destroyed!

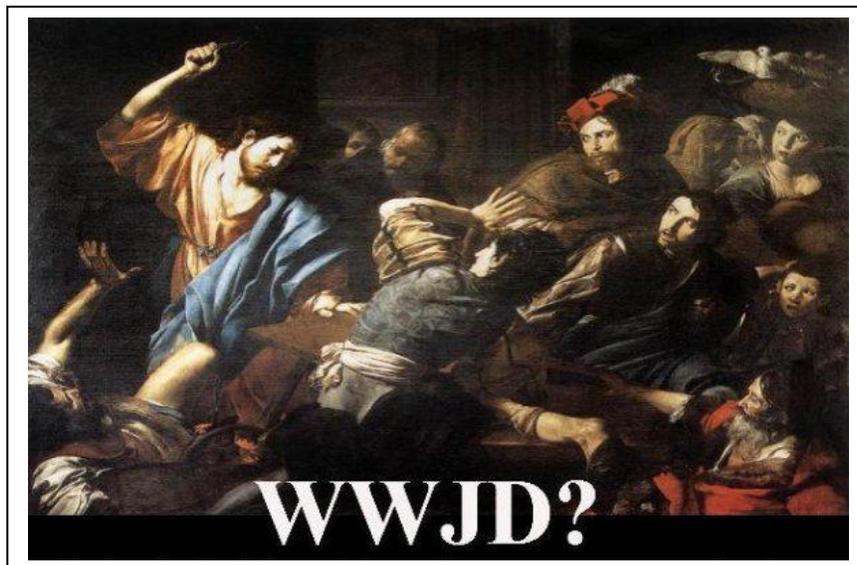

Are there any today guilty of running a "house of merchandise" that deserve to be whipped and have their "businesses" violently destroyed?

*Counseling *Conferences *Seminars *Courses *Teaching *Online telecasts
*Books *CD's *DVD's *Weddings *Baptisms *Funeral Services

The "church" today is quite a "house of merchandise" that the temple businesses and money changers in Jesus' day would be quite jealous of.

What does the Bible say should and will be done?

Jesus has been crystal clear with these 2 scripture studies in Luke 12:41-48 and John 2:13-16 what Father's will is and what happens to Christians, especially leaders that do not "act in accord with His will".

TAKE HEED... TEACH OTHERS... this is an absolute, WARNING
from Jesus to Christians, especially to leaders, not to play around with our responsibilities!

For Eagle Christians that don't play with fire, I pray that as always, you have GOOD HUNTING out there, as God leads!
